

Leith Hill Musical Festival Young Voices

Do you love to sing? Would you like to be part of a new exciting singing group?

We are urgently looking for thirty-five ten to seventeen year olds to become the LHMF Young Voices. This group will make their debut on Saturday 14th April 2018 at the Dorking Halls. They will sing “Mass of the Children” by John Rutter and will be supported by four local adult Choral Societies. There will be also be soloists, the Southern Pro Musica Orchestra and it will all be conducted by Jonathan Willcocks.

The amazing conductor who will teach you the music is Christopher Wray. He conducts both adult and children’s choirs and is really looking forward to meeting our Young Voices.

Rehearsals are being held on Monday 12th February and Tuesday 13th February at The Priory School, West Bank, Dorking, RH4 3DG from 9.15 – 4.30pm. There will be three further rehearsals, Sunday 25th February, Sunday 11th March and Sunday 25th March. These will be 2.30 – 4.00pm and the venue will be confirmed in due course.

You will need to bring your own packed lunch on the two full days but drinks and biscuits will be provided. In order to confirm your place you will be asked to bring £10.00 with you to the first rehearsal. This will help us to pay for the hire of the music.

There is a registration form attached which can be posted to LHMF Young Voices, Cotswolds, Martineau Drive, Dorking, RH4 2PN or handed in to your school office from where it will be collected. The form is also available on the Festival website www.lhmf.org.uk where it can be completed and then emailed to barbarachristopher1951@gmail.com If forms are emailed then a further copy with the signature of a parent or carer must be brought to the first rehearsal.

If you have any questions please telephone Barbara on 01306 884656
