Key aims/success criteria

- I can look for clues in the picture to help me understand.
- I can use the clues to predict the story...

Read this book together

Activity

- You will read some of the text together.
- Then you will be asked to predict what happens next in the story.
- You can then read on and find out if your predictions were correct.

Peppa, George, Daddy Pig and Grandpa Pig are watching racing cars on television.
"It's such a lovely day, you should go outside and play," Granny Pig says.

"What shall we do?" asks Daddy Pig.

What happens next?

So...they are watching racing cars on TV and Granny Pig tells them to go outside and play.

Look at the picture and think about what you have just read.

What do you think they might do next?

Remember to start your sentence I think and then say because to explain your answer.

Now let's read on...

"What shall we do?" asks Daddy Pig.
"Brrrrrm," says George.
"George wants to play racing cars!"
cries Peppa.
"Let's build him one!" says Grandpa Pig.
He finds an old pram in his shed.

Clever Grandpa Pig turns the pram into a pedal car.
“What’s your favourite number,
George?” asks Daddy Pig.
“Snort! Snort!” George replies.
Daddy Pig paints a big ‘2’
on the car’s bonnet.

Along come Danny Dog,
Zoe Zebra and Pedro Pony.
“Look at George’s racing car!” says Peppa.
“We’ll race you three times around the garden, George!” they cry.
“Go!” Peppa shouts, waving a chequered flag.

What happens next?

- Peppa and George's friends have come over to play and have suggested they have a race around the garden.
- What will happen next? Who will win the race? Why do you predict that?

Remember to start your sentence I think and then say because to explain your answer.

Now let's read on...

What happens next?

George is in the lead!

What will happen next?

Remember to start your sentence I think and then say because to explain your answer.

Now let's read on...

At the end of lap two, George is in the lead until . . . one of his wheels comes off.
"I'm the chief mechanic!"
cries Peppa. "I can fix it!"
George gets back in the race,
but now he's last.

Granny Pig comes outside to see what the noise is all about.
"Come on, George!" she shouts.
"Neeeeeow!" he says, pedalling as fast as he can.
"Go, George, go!" snort Peppa,
Daddy Pig and Grandpa Pig.

What happens next?

What will the end of the story be?

Who will win??

Will George be able to go from last position to first?

Surely a bike is faster than a space hopper?!?

Remember to start your sentence I think and then say because to explain your answer.

Now let's read on...

George finally takes the lead and zooms across the finish line.

"George is the winner!" declares Grandpa Pig.

"Well done, George," says Peppa.
"You're the best racing driver in the whole world!"

The end

Hurray! George was the winner in the end.

Did you predict the story correctly?

Can you re tell the story? What happened in the beginning/middle and end?

Could you make up another version or ending for the story?
