Title page

- What is the title of this story?
- What does the word mischief mean? Can you think of any other words that mean the same?
- Write a list of the words you think of. Do you think that mischief was the best word that the author could have used? Does it make you want to read on?
- What type of mischief might the boy get up to?

Ok, lets start reading the first couple of pages...

It was a rainy day. Ted hated rainy days.
“Let’s go shopping,” said Ted’s dad.

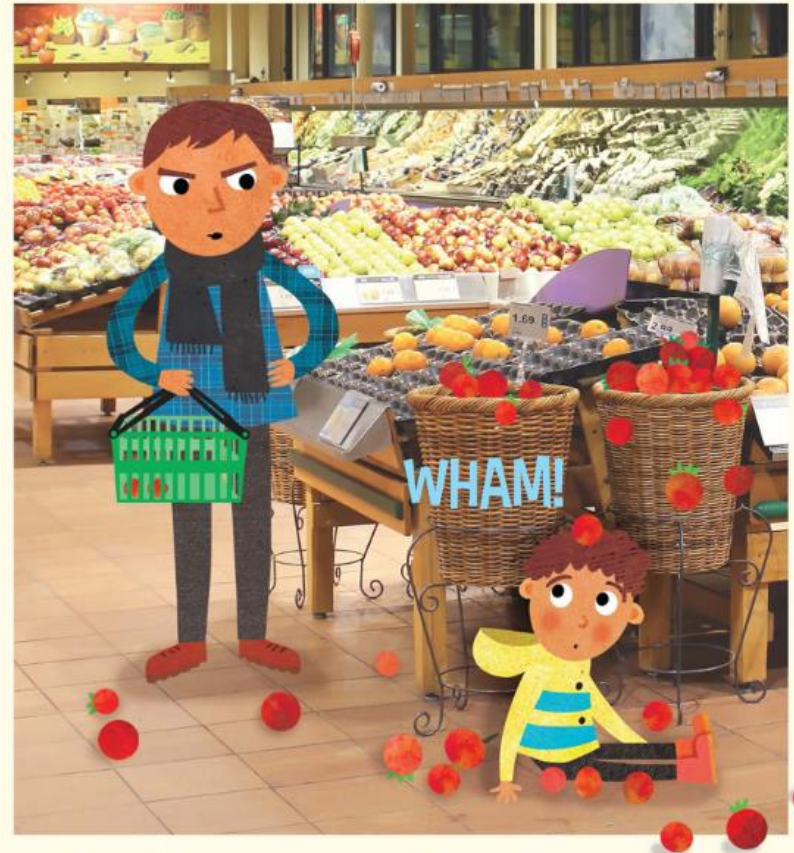

“Can we stay at home and play?”
sighed Ted. “Shopping is boring.”

“Why don’t you pick some ripe tomatoes?”
said Ted’s dad.

But Ted had a better plan. He slid on the shiny tiles.

Ted crashed into a basket of tomatoes.
“No sliding!” cried Ted’s dad.

“Why don’t you look for the biggest potatoes?” said Ted’s dad.
But Ted had a better plan. He made a potato tower.

Ted’s potato tower fell down.
“No towers!” yelled a grumpy old lady.

We will pause there and read on another day.

Before you go...challenge time!!

Look at these words from the text you have just read-

shopping   boring   sliding

What do you notice about these 3 words??
