What is important for Muslim children?

This week we are learning about the The Qur'an,
the holy book of Islam.

Islam

The Qur'an

Starter Activity

What is the Qur'an?

What do you already know about it?

Learning Objective

To find out about the Qur'an.

Success Criteria

- I can explain what the Qur'an is, what can be found inside, why it is so special and how the book is treated by Muslims.
- I can think about something that is special to me and why.

What is the Qur'an?

The Qur'an is the holy book for Muslims and is written in Arabic. Muslims believe it is the perfect word of God.

What is the Qur'an?

Muslims show respect for the Qur'an by washing their hands before touching it. When not being used, the Qur'an is often wrapped up in a special cloth and kept on a high shelf to show respect. It must never touch the floor and is placed on a special stand when being read. Many Muslims around the world learn the Qur'an off by heart!

The Qur'an

The Qur'an teaches Muslims how to live a good life.

Here are just a few rules which Muslims must live by:

- Worship only one God
- Pray 5 times a day
- Give to charity
- Show respect and love to your parents
- Show forgiveness to others

Your task

Write your own set of rules which would help to make the world a better place.

Plenary

Think of 3 things you have learned:

- What is the Qur'an?
- Why is the Qur'an special to Muslims?
- What rules do Muslims follow to look after it?

The image features a decorative border with a green background and gold-colored geometric and calligraphic patterns. The patterns include repeating motifs of stylized Arabic calligraphy, likely the Basmala (Bismillah), enclosed in ornate, multi-layered frames. These are separated by vertical and horizontal bands of geometric designs, such as interlocking lines and small squares. The overall style is reminiscent of traditional Islamic art or bookbinding.
