The missing keys

Travis and mum were getting ready to go to the shops. But mum couldn't find her keys. They were silver with a big pink pom-pom keyring. Mum asked Travis to help her look for her keys. Where could she have left them? First, they looked under the sofa but the keys weren't there. Then, mum looked behind the TV and Travis looked in the kitchen drawer. The keys weren't there either.

"Have you checked your handbag?" Travis asked.

So Mum checked in her handbag. The keys were in there! Mum was so pleased that she had finally found her keys that she hugged Travis and thanked him for helping.
