

Early one morning Thor woke up, opened his eyes and reached for his trusty hammer Molliner but it had vanished, stolen by giants who wanted to take over the world.

_____, Thor went to Freya for help

_____, she gave him her cloak of feathers

_____, he soared high above the clouds and saw the giants had it.

_____, Thrym refused to give Thor the hammer unless Freya agreed to be his bride.

_____, Freya would not _____ Thor decided to pretend to be Freya!

_____, he put on a fine dress and a bridal veil and went to see Thrym.

"What an enormous woman," gasped Thrym, but he was happy.

_____, he called for the hammer to bless his bride _____.

Immediately, Thor seized the hammer and was invincible!

All the gods were safe.