

Bearly Believe their Eyes!

Reporter: Teddy B. Air

Yesterday, at 11am in the morning, a terrible crime was discovered in the deep dark wood at the cottage of the 3 Bears! A young girl named Goldilocks is believed to be involved and she is now being questioned by police.

Early in the morning, Mummy Bear cooked up a huge bowl of delicious, creamy porridge. The Bear family love porridge but it was just too hot so they happily set off for a lovely stroll in the woods to let it cool down.

When they arrived home, the bears discovered that their cosy, little cottage had been broken into! First, they noticed that Baby Bear's porridge had been eaten whilst Mummy and Daddy Bears' had not.

Just then, they saw that Baby Bear's chair had been viciously smashed to pieces but Mummy and Daddy Bears' were fine!

As they went upstairs, they were shocked and stunned by what they saw. There, lying in Baby Bear's bed, was a young girl who had golden hair, a blue dress and a guilty grin on her face.

The bears discover that the porridge has gone.

"How did she get there? I don't know. I just couldn't believe my eyes!" said Mummy Bear after seeing Goldilocks jump out of bed, leap through the window and dash quickly into the woods.

"We have Goldilocks at the station. If she apologises and promises to repair the damage, she is free to go," commented PC Plod. What a naughty girl!

Police asked that all residence make sure that they lock their doors and look out for suspicious behaviour. We will bring you more information as we receive it.
