

Year 3 Geography 13.07.20

LEARNING INTENTION:

To understand the similarities and differences between a town in Wales and Dorking

SUCCESS CRITERIA:

- I can compare Dorking with Llandudno.
- I can sort features of each town.

Activity

- Think back to the last lesson where we looked at the similarities and differences between Wales and the South East. Look at the next slide to see where Llandudno is located on a map.
- It is a seaside town in North Wales. How could this be different to our town? What are the features of Dorking town? Make a list together.
- Watch

<https://player.vimeo.com/video/100287582>

Then continue this ppt and jot down some ideas about how Llandudno is different to Dorking.

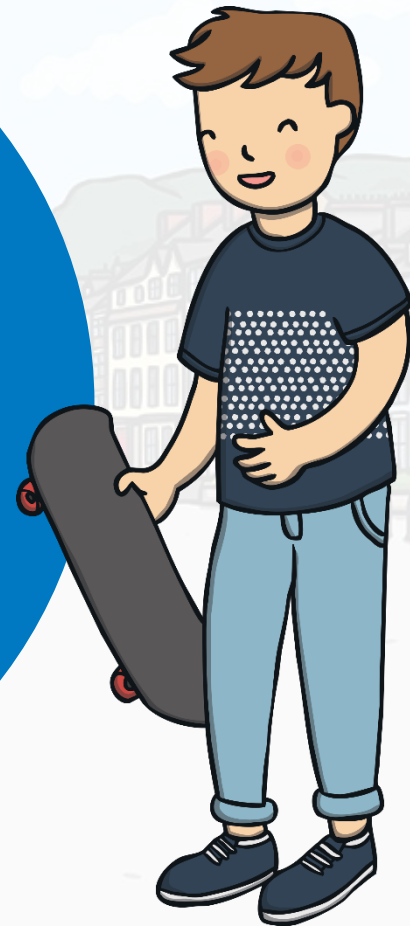

Cut out the pictures of Dorking and Llandudno and stick them in the correct area on the grid. (Features of Llandudno/Dorking)

Complete similarities and differences sheet.

How to Say Llandudno

The sound 'll' in the Welsh language is pronounced a bit like a cross between the English 'ch' and 'th' sounds.

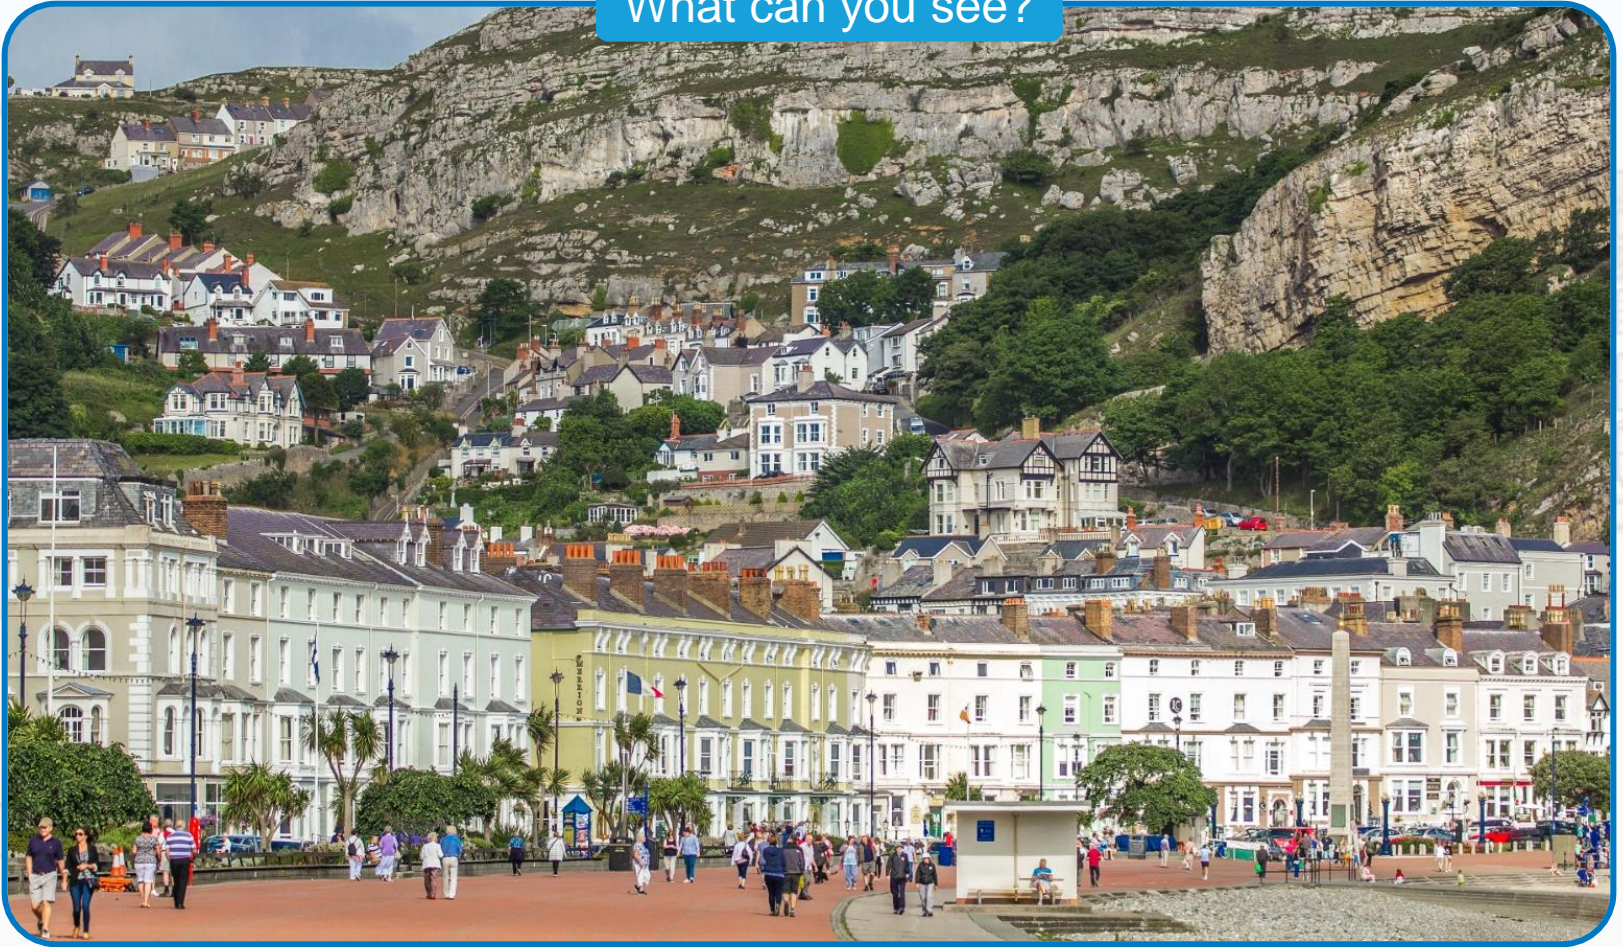

While making the sound, lift both sides of your tongue towards the top of your mouth.

What Is Llandudno Like?

What can you see?

What Is Llandudno Like?

What can you see?

What Is Llandudno Like?

This is a picture of Llandudno Pier. It was built in 1877 and is the longest pier in Wales.

Can you see the posts holding up the pier? There are shops, cafes and amusement arcades on the pier.

Things to Do in Llandudno

Click on a picture to find out more about things to do in Llandudno.

Tram rides take you to the top of one of the headlands, which is called the Great Orme.

Photo courtesy of (interbeat@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons 2.0 licence - attribution

Things to Do in Llandudno

Click on a picture to find out more about things to do in Llandudno.

People enjoy walking along the promenade. A promenade is a paved walkway along a beach.

Photo courtesy of (Reading Tom@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons 2.0 licence - attribution

Things to Do in Llandudno

Click on a picture to find out more about things to do in Llandudno.

Taking a cable car to the Great Orme is popular, although this might be scary if you're afraid of heights!

Photo courtesy of (kBandara@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons 2.0 licence - attribution