- I can mark centuries on a time line.
- I can mark significant events on a time line.

History starter

Have a think about these questions.

- What is history?
- Why do we study history?

History starter answers

Have a think about these questions?

- What is history?
- History is the study of the past, even what you did yesterday is history!
- Why do we study history?
- We study history to learn about how people lived many years ago. It's good to learn lessons from history so that bad things don't happen again and good things continue.

Dorking

Dorking

Can you locate Dorking on a map of the UK?

Main Teaching

Discuss with your parent or carer;

- What type of place is Dorking?
- What is Dorking like today?
- Where is Dorking situated?

Main Teaching possible answers

- What type of place is Dorking? Dorking is a small, rural town
- What is Dorking like today? Dorking has shops and offices in the centre. There are fields and agriculture outside of the town centre. There are lots of houses.
- Where is Dorking situated? Dorking is a town in the county of Surrey, which is in the South East region of England. (Think back to our geography from last half term).

Main Teaching

- Dorking was first mentioned in the Domesday book in 1086 as the Monor of Dorchinges.
- The word Dorchinges means
- 'Dor' = water
- 'wicinges' = inhabitants
- So together Dorchinges means people who live near streams and springs near the town

Main Teaching

- What type of place would Dorking have been then?
- What would it be like to live here then?

Main Teaching

William the Conqueror needed to know how many people were in his new kingdom. To do this he sent out people to all parts of his new country. Their job was to find and count every farm, every person, even every pig or chicken.

Dorking had:

16

3 acres of woodland worth
the same as 88 hogs!
