

Can you remember the features of a non -chronological report? Discuss them with your TP.

heading/title

sub-headings

topic specific vocabulary

present tense

adjectives

pictures and captions/labels

Non-chronological report

Today we are going to practise extending our sentences using the conjunctions

but if

But is used to connect two ideas that ^L_{SEP}contrast.

I love fruit but I am allergic to strawberries.

Every week my family goes to church but this week my brother can't come.

If is used if you are saying that something ^[L]_[SEP] might happen but it depends on something ^[L]_[SEP] else happening as well.

You can have an ice-cream if you are good.

You can stay at the hotel if you pay money ^[L]_[SEP] for the room.

Put the correct conjunction in these [L][SEP]sentences.

The day was cold _____ clear.

You can have some money _____ you clean [L][SEP]the car.

I have been promised a treat _____ I tidy [L][SEP]my room.

I went trick and treating _____ I got very tired.

Can you finish these sentences using L
SEP either the conjunction if or but?

A unicorn normally has spiral horns

Apparently, Unicorns will eat from your L
SEP hand

Some unicorns like to eat marshmallows.....