

Read this paragraph and answer the questions.

I couldn't eat my tea. I felt a bit sick and excited at the same time. I couldn't wait. I couldn't believe we were going after all this time. I had begun to believe that we just wouldn't go, despite all of my dreaming and begging. I wanted to go on the rides, and to see the characters walking around. I couldn't wait!

Where do you think the child wants to go?

What is it the child wants to do when they get there?

Copy the phrase that describes how the child is feeling?

What word means the same as asking a lot?

Copy the phrase makes you think that the child had been waiting to go there for a long time?
