

Hi Juniper,

Hope you are all well and settling into working in a very different way. Hope you had a nice weekend and managed to get outside to have some fun! The weather is much brighter at the moment so at least it means you can play and relax in the gardens. Don't forget to do lots of physical exercise and remember you can do a workout with Joe Wicks each day.

Just to let you know – the website will be updated with new work. You will need to look at the Year 6 section and click on the Home Working 2020 tab. We will try to make the work varied and interesting.

If you find yourself getting bored try to play some board games with your family. My little nephews have suddenly started to really like Snakes and Ladders and Draughts. Both of these can be played really easily. They also have been set a project about life in previous decades. They are currently doing a section on Children's cartoons from the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. They have been watching them on youtube and then writing descriptions of characters and drawing cartoon strips. I told them my favourite cartoons from the 1980s were SuperTed and Thundercats. I also remember really liking : The Real Ghostbusters; Ducktails and The Racoons. Have a look at them if you get a chance!

Hope you all stay well and stay happy. Everyone is having to adjust and I expect some of the things you had planned have been cancelled. I was really looking forward to going to Brighton and staying in a really nice hotel called 'The Grand.' Unfortunately this has been cancelled and although I am disappointed I know it is much more important we all stay safe and listen to all the advice we are given.

Having less to do means there is time for me at weekends to read a little more than I usually do. I have just read a book called: 'The Boy in the Striped pyjamas.' It is a really good story and is related to the work we were doing in school on World War 2. I have also re-read two of my favourites: 'Wonder' and 'Cloud Busting.' Both of these are also well worth a read.

I will write back again soon. I'm going to read all your postcards later today and then post them off to different places. Stay safe and well. Mrs Howlett also says hello and hopes you are all happy.

Best Wishes,

Mr Tinsley.
