

Hi Elm,

Hope you are all well and settling into working in a very different way. Hope you had a nice weekend and managed to get outside to have some fun! The weather is much brighter at the moment so at least it means you can play and relax in the gardens. Don't forget to do lots of physical exercise and remember you can do a workout with Joe Wicks each day.

Just to let you know – the website will be updated with new work. You will need to look at the Year 6 section and click on the Home Working 2020 tab. We will try to make the work varied and interesting.

Hopefully you will have lots of activities to do but if you find that you are getting bored, how about completing a puzzle?

I have added a 30 day Lego challenge too and it would be great to see some of your creations. You can send them by email to info@stpauls-dorking.surrey.sch.uk.

I have recently learnt to play backgammon which is great fun. How about learning to play a new game?

There are also some great things being streamed on different channels. The BBC have recently added Mallory Towers onto their BBC iplayer. This is a series based on Enid Blyton's book. The West End production of Wind And The Willows is also being streamed at the moment.

Creating comic strips of cartoons is also a great idea!

Hope you all stay well and stay happy. Everyone is having to adjust and I expect some of the things you had planned have been cancelled. I was really looking forward to going to Silverstone for a track day but unfortunately that will not happen now until the Autumn.

I will write back again soon.

Stay safe and well.

Mrs Herbert also says hello and hopes you are all happy.

Best Wishes,

Miss George
