Spelling

- Practise spelling these 4 spellings from the Year 3 spelling list.
- describe
- mention
- answer
- appear

Lesson Aims

- Today you are going to write the ending of your myth.

This needs to include:

- 1. How the god escapes with its special item.
- 2. Returning the item to the god they borrowed it from.
- 3. Returning home.
- REMEMBER - to talk about how the god feels.

- Once you have done this you need to read through the whole of your story in order to edit it.
- Does it all make sense?
- Have you punctuated correctly?
- Have you included all of the success criteria?
- Give yourself 2 stars and a wish – 2 things you have done really well, 1 thing that you could improve on next time.

Success Criteria – for whole myth

- Use this success criteria to help you.
- I can use noun phrases ( dark, black cloak )
- I can use a sentence of 3 ( Loki had a golden cloak, long, black boots and a strong helmet )  extend this with a conjunction
- I can use adverbs
- I can use conjunctions to extend the sentence
- I can start sentences in different ways – ( conjunctions, prepositions, similes, adverbs )
- I can add speech and punctuate it correctly
- I can start the sentence with a subordinate clause
- I can use a simile
- I can use a drop in clause

Read this section to identify the success criteria.

- Feeling happy, Loki put his magical helmet away, jumped on Odin's horse and galloped off as quick as lightening. When he arrived at Odin's magnificent castle, Odin was there to greet him.
- "I couldn't have done this without you," said Loki. "What can I do for you?"
- Odin rubbed his chin slowly.
- "Mmmmm," he murmured thinking carefully " I think we should have a party!"
- So that night they had the biggest, loudest and best party the gods had ever had to celebrate the return of Loki's helmet. Meanwhile the ice dragon stayed trapped in the deep, dark hole forever! The gods were invincible.

Plenary

- See lesson aims – this explains what to do when you have finished your story.
