

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Sir Cuthbert happyly/happily/happally began to announce the competition results. He was dramaticly/dramaticilly/dramatically interrupted by one of the royal princesses, who frantically/franticly/franticilly waved a piece of paper in the air for the nation to see.

2. Look at the sentences below. Change the bold words into pronouns. Write your answers in the boxes.

The family members gathered in the sitting room to watch the announcement.

The chauffeur sighed and pushed the letter box flap open.

3. Combine the two sentences below using a suitable conjunction. Write your answer in the box.

At first, Dad thought that the official letter was for him. There were two Mr Kings living in the same house.

4. Which of the following sentences shows the correct agreement between subject and verb? Tick one box.

The family are watching television.

The princess is waving the paper in the air.
The chauffeur are knocking at the door.
They is feeling very excited.

5. Copy the sentence below. Add any missing punctuation marks.

We are the new royal family shouted James excitedly.