It's a mystery!

Do you remember what happened so far this week?
Talk partners to explain – Home learners tell a grown up.

It's a mystery!

- Mrs Cole found mystery eggs in the copse.
- We thought of questions to find out about the eggs.
- We found the egg under the teacher's desk.
- We thought of a good place to put it to keep it warm and safe.
- We heard the beginning of a book and saw part of a picture of the egg snatcher.
- We thought of adjectives to describe the egg snatching wizard.

Find the wizard

We are going to try to find the wizard to stop him taking Mother Dragon's eggs.

We have some lovely adjectives to describe the wizard so we can use them to make some posters to ask people to look out for him.

A wanted poster.

What would we need to include?

Looks What he takes Who to tell

bent

pointed (hat)

crooked

long

mean

The wizard

white (beard)

black (cloak)

cold

stooped

cackle

We will start by asking a question

Have

Do

Where

What do you think the question should say? It is going at the top of the poster above the picture. Discuss. Take ideas.

The wizard

bent

white (beard)

pointed (hat)

black (cloak)

crooked

cold

long

stooped

mean

cackle

examples

Haveyou seen this wizard?.....

Do ... you know where this wizard lives?.....

Whereis this wizard?.....

Have you seen this wizard?

Then we need to describe

- his looks – him and his clothes
- what he would have with him
- his behaviour
- his movement

Using the adjectives from yesterday in sentences. Have your work from yesterday next to you so you can use the adjectives.

The wizard
bent	white (beard)
pointed (hat)	black (cloak)
crooked	cold
long	stooped
mean	cackle

Hot

Can you use 'and' or 'because' in some of your sentences?

Can you use the best adjectives in your sentences?

Medium hot

Can you use an adjective in each sentence?

Mild

Can you say the sentence before you write it to check it makes sense?
