

Religious Education

Year 1

RE

Friday 12th June (PM)

Why do Jewish families celebrate Shabbat?

We begin the topic, by talking about what we do at different points in the week and what is important at the weekends.

Learning Intention

- think about the days of the week and say which days are for school and which are for rest
- talk about our weekends and say how this can be special time with our families

What do you like to do?

Teaching and discussion

Which days are for school?

Which days are for rest?

How do you spend your weekend?

What is your favourite weekend activity?

Discussion time

What is important in your family at the weekend?

FAMILY

It's busy time now.

You have an activity to do.

Children can draw, write, do both, to show what they do.

Name _____ Date ____/____/____

During the week ....

At the weekend...

Learning Objectives	Success Criteria	Next step
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To think about the days of the week and say which days are for school and which are for rest</li><li>To talk about our weekends and say how this can be special times with our families</li></ul>	SC1 Must do good listening when talking about their families special times together SC2 Should know the week is made up of days, some of which are for school. SC3 Could explain why it is important to have times of rest	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Why do families celebrate special times in many different ways?</li></ul>

Success Criteria

- Must do good listening

- Should know the week is made up of days, some of which are for school
- Could explain why it is important to have times of rest

Challenge

Why do families celebrate special times in many different ways?

